IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 30,

On Friday, September 30, 2011, at approximately 1:43 P.M. the Westminster Police Department responded to the unit block of Distillery Drive for the report of a hit and run accident involving a pedestrian.

Investigation revealed that a female pedestrian was struck by an SUV while crossing Distillery Drive in the City of Westminster. The pedestrian was pushing a baby stroller with a two-year old child in it at the time she was struck; the child was not injured. The pedestrian received minor injuries and was transported to Carroll Hospital Center for treatment.

The striking vehicle is described as a dark blue SUV with the number 6 in the license plate, no other identifying information. The vehicle was last seen making a left turn onto Railroad Avenue from Distillery Drive. The individual operating the SUV is described as an older white male with a full beard wearing a John Deer hat.

Citizens who may have witnessed this incident or who have information as to the identity of the suspect are asked to contact Officer Adam Laser, Westminster Police Department at (410) 848-4646.
